The Enchantment Chapter of the National Classification Management Society (NCMS) and the National Counterintelligence Executive (NCIX) are pleased to announce the 11th Annual Security Round-Up, a one-day security training seminar, to be held at the Marriott Hotel, (I-40 / Louisiana Blvd.) in Albuquerque, New Mexico on Friday, 3 October 2003.

Networking and registration will begin at 7:00 a.m. Cost for the seminar is $50 for NCMS members and $65 for non-members. Cost includes continental breakfast, morning and afternoon breaks, and lunch. The theme of this seminar is, "Expand Your Security Knowledge to Meet the Ascending Threat." Along that line, attendees are invited to stay over in Albuquerque to take advantage of the Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta which begins early morning on Saturday, Oct 4th. More information on the Balloon Fiesta will be included in follow-up announcements and you can visit their website at www.balloonfiesta.com.

A number of subject matter experts are on the agenda, and each will address a specific topic: Workplace Violence (Deedee Collins, Special Aerospace Security Services), Operations Security (Lynne Yates, Interagency OPSEC Support Staff), The Role of Counterintelligence in Counter-Terrorism (Byron Sage, retired FBI), Information and Computer Security Issues (Bryan Hurd, EDS), and the day will conclude with a presentation by Joe Ruffini (JPR & Associates), the "Information Warrior" from Colorado Springs. All of these speakers are flawless presenters and we guarantee that you will receive "tools of the trade" in order to help you do a better job as a security professional.

The NCMS point of contact for this seminar is Mr. Chris Kempter, NCMS Enchantment Chapter Treasurer, P.O. Box 3486, Albuquerque, NM 87110. He may be reached at 505-858-2212 or ckempter@asrcc.com. The NCIX point of contact is Mr. Steve Argubright, who may be reached at 703-874-8674 or stephfa@ncix.gov.

Early reservations for hotel accommodations are STRONGLY RECOMMENDED as many hotels will be booked to capacity for visitors attending the Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta.
